GRADE PAINT PONY GELDING 14 YRS OLD
CONSIGNER:

Boomerang is a 14-year-old, 12.3hh (50-inch) stout-made pony that looks like a small draft horse—he's got plenty of bone, big feet, and the kind of build you don't often find in ponies. He has a smooth little gait and a nice, slow lope, handling like a miniature cow horse that's always willing and responsive. Boomerang isn't spooky and is super gentle, making him the perfect forever partner for a little kid. Prior to coming to us, he was loved by the same family for many years, and that steady, kind nature shines through in everything he does. He'll trail ride in the front, middle, or back of the group, go in the arena, or ride bareback or saddled—however his rider wants to enjoy him. He's even been known to swim the pond for fun! The little boy who rides him here every Sunday—despite having his own big horse—absolutely adores him, and it's easy to see why. Boomerang comes with all the guarantees and is up to date on teeth, shoes, and feet.

She's got all the moves, is soft in the bridle, responsive, and willing in every situation. She has been exposed to various obstacles, many different trails, and traffic of all kinds, taking each new experience with confidence and ease. She hauls easily, eats and drinks well on the road, and is current on all routine care — teeth, vaccinations, and chiropractic work — with normal yearly maintenance (hock injections). Ranch pleasure truly fits her style, and she has also been hauled to several team sortings for fun. She's been with her current owner for four years and offered for sale only because her current rider cannot match her speed on the barrel pattern. CONSIGNER:

Pipaloticus is a 6-year-old, 13-hand pony mare that embodies everything you want in a true family pony: safe, smart, dependable, and full of heart. She is the definition of trustworthy, with a loving personality that makes her a barn favorite.

On the trails, she is as quiet and confident as they come, willingly going anywhere she is pointed and handling traffic with ease. Around the barn, she is a perfect angel — easy to bathe, groom, tack, and shoe. Our daughter rides her daily, often bareback with just a halter, and we trust her completely to catch, tack, and ride off unsupervised at only 8 years old. That's the level of safety and consistency this pony delivers.

Pipaloticus also has the kind of training that makes her standout in any arena. She handles beautifully with a one-hand neck rein, has been started English, and already shows an automatic lead change. She walks, trots, canters with ease, and confidently goes over fences. Whether for pleasure, performance, or simply a safe and fun partner for children, she offers the rare combination of brains, training, and an unshakably kind nature.

Always the first one to greet you in the pasture and the same pony every single day, Pipaloticus is a once-in-a-lifetime kind of pony — the kind you'll have a hard time letting go.

Handled extensively by someone experienced with stallions, Tweety already has the manners and presence you want in a colt of this caliber. He has not yet been saddled but has been worked regularly and will be an easy one to start. His pedigree is royal in the cutting and cow horse industry, and he has the looks, style, and athleticism to back it up. If you’re shopping for a futurity prospect, Tweety checks every box. My granddaughter rode her in 4H, AYRA, and High School Rodeos. She competed in breakaway, team sorting, ranch roping, and some speed events. Not selling her as a speed event horse but could be trained and finished if you want to go in that direction. Juicy does trail ride and is calm on the trails. She gets along with other horses and is not buddy or barn sour. No kick, bite, or buck. Loads great. She is a great all-around horse with no bad habits. Same horse every time. She is a very easy keeper. My granddaughter graduated and the mare hasn't competed or been ridden much in probably three years. Leave her in the pasture for months or years, saddle her, and she rides as well as the day you put out. Wanting her to go to a good home because she is just sitting in the pasture.
