- Mares selling in foal must be accompanied by a completed and signed breeder's certificate, or a written statement from the stallion owner confirming that the breeder's certificate will be issued at foaling.

- Southwest Horse Sale and its affiliates act solely as auctioneers for all sales and potential sales. They assume no responsibility for errors, misunderstandings, misrepresentations, rejection of bids, failure of payment, condition of the horse, or any disputes arising between the Buyer and Seller/Consignor/Owner.

- The Seller/Consignor/Owner is required to fully disclose any known defects, vices, or undesirable habits. Such disclosures must be announced when the horse enters the sales arena and/or at the time of sale. Southwest Horse Sale and its affiliates are not responsible for loss, injury, or damage to horses, equipment, or persons caused by accident, fire, theft, or any other circumstance before, during, or after the sale. WARNING UNDER LOUISIANA LAW An equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for injury to or the death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to La.
